

The ILBSA Advantage

Random testing of CDL drivers (and other employees you consider to be “safety-sensitive”) is required by the Dept. of Transportation and the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration. As an employer, though, you may wish to test other employees not necessarily in your pool of drivers. Now you can.

Indiana (ITI) Testing, an ILBSA Associate Member company, will extend to ILBSA Consortium member firms the reduced price for alcohol and drug testing, even for other employees. Another good reason for having ILBSA take care of ALL your alcohol and drug testing needs!

We are confident you’ll enjoy the upgraded services, along with cost savings provided by ITI Testing through the ILBSA Consortium. You can visit ITI Testing on the web at www.indianatesting.com. Or, call the ILBSA office at 317-875-3737 or 877-465-8627 for questions and further resources.

ILBSA ALCOHOL & DRUG TESTING CONSORTIUM

Be DOT compliant, save money, and experience the ultimate in convenience with ILBSA’s NEW Testing program for 2012

WHY ILBSA's CONSORTIUM?

As you know, your "safety-sensitive" employees, like CDL drivers, are required to be tested periodically. The power of the Association really comes to the forefront with a "consortium", or one large group, to provide this testing to keep you in compliance with FMCSA (Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration) and DOT (Dept. of Transportation) rules.

As the consortium has grown over the years, so have the needs of the members. As a business leader, you would rather spend your time building your business, dealing with customers, and making sales; not being bogged down with government paperwork, hoping you are in compliance. And with the Consortium, your entire program is handled. It's that simple.
